

Love Absolutely

Empty the contains of your mind at my feet.

Sheer the wool of burden from your body and place the unmade coat upon my shoulders.

Share with me the fruits from the garden of your soul and nourish my intellect.

Let insecurity be washed from you like a river of sin blessed by the divinity of our relationship.

Be free with me. Bask in the glory of our emotional nudity. Be free with me. Let us see without eyes, hear without ears, and personify vicarious existence despite our proximity.

Love me absolutely.

Absolutely.

Love.
